

Preliminary Application for the Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps Direct Appointment or Student Program

By submitting this application along with all requested documents, I understand that I may receive a professional recommendation for a commission from the Navy's Judge Advocate General's (JAG) Corps Selection Board. If this application results in a favorable recommendation it does not guarantee me a commission, nor does it require the Navy to offer me a commission in the Navy JAG Corps. I must submit an official application for a commission package via my Navy Recruiting District (NRD) to be considered for a commission. That application is an entirely different form and must be obtained and submitted through the NRD. The Navy may or may not offer me a commission based on the results of my complete and official application package, including but not limited to, the medical examination and security screening.

Only complete applications received or postmarked by the application deadline will considered.
