Dear Admiral Abbot,

The 2018 Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society (NMCRS) Active Duty Fund Drive (ADFD) ended on May 30, 2018. At the conclusion of the ADFD, the Department of the Navy requested the Chief of Naval Operations and the Commandant of the Marine Corps solicit TIER II commands for best practices, lessons learned, concerns, issues, and/or recommendations captured during the 2018 NMCRS ADFD.

Twenty-two commands responded to our questionnaire answering ten questions. After reviewing the submissions, we noted a common theme stressing the importance of leadership involvement and assigning the right person as coordinator. Responses for each question were summarized and are provided in Attachment 1. A complete listing of responses can be found at Attachment 2.

The 2018 best practices will be placed on our website for the upcoming campaign with location indicated in the 2019 NMCRS All Navy.

Sincerely,

W. R. O’Donnell
