

---

Christopher D. Damour

Region Executive Director Commander, U.S. Navy Region Korea

Mr. Damour began his civilian career with the Army as a cooperative education student in Environmental/Natural Resources Division of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Engineer TRADOC. He subsequently assumed positions of greater responsibility working on the installation staffs at Fort Dix, N.J.; Fort Gordon, Ga.; and Fort Bragg, N.C. He was then promoted to positions on the Region staff in the Plans Division of the Army Installation Management Command (IMCOM) Southeast and Korea Regions. Mr. Damour was selected as the Region Executive Director to the Commander, Navy Region Korea and began this position in June 2015.

Mr. Damour has been a Family Member, Soldier or DA Civilian his entire life. He was born at a base in Georgia and moved with his family to Fort Knox, Ky.; Bangor, Maine; Cranston, R.I.; Pittsburgh, Pa and Chester, Va. He enlisted in the US Army at age 17 and served as a supply specialist and armorer.

Upon departing Korea, Mr. Damour served as an IMCOM Liaison Officer to Army Materiel Command at Redstone Arsenal, Ala; Deputy Garrison Commander of U.S. Army Garrison Kwajalein Atoll; and most recently as the Deputy Garrison Commander for the U.S. Army Support Activity - Soto Cano Airbase, Republic of Honduras. Mr. Damour attended Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Biology. He also received an Army Cost Management Certificate from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. He completed the Army Civilian Education System Intermediate and Advanced Courses as well as the Continuing Education for Senior Leaders Module.

Mr. Damour's key civilian recognition includes two Superior Civilian Service Awards, three Commander's Award for Civilian Service, Korean Civilian Service Medal, and was a USFK Civilian Awardee by the Korean-American Friendship Society.