

Current Student

You are eligible for this appointing authority if you are an individual:
Currently enrolled full or part-time (as defined by the educational institution) as a student in high school, vocational institution, college, or university.

Supporting documentation: You must provide acceptable documentation of your appointment eligibility, by providing proof of enrollment, in the form of letters, records or statements issued from a high school, vocational institution, college, or university, with your completed application.