

Overseas Limited Appointment Eligibility

You are eligible for this Limited Term appointing authority if you are:

- A United States citizen, available in the overseas area, who are non-status applicants and are not family members of military personnel

Under this appointing authority, veteran's preference rules apply.

However, there are certain host nations-specific requirements and limitations to this authority.

Contact the local Human Resources Office for specific details.