Background

A shutdown furlough is an unplanned or emergency event when there is a lapse in appropriations (funding). If Congress does not pass an appropriations bill or a Continuing Resolution by midnight 19 January 2018, the government is required to limit operations under the Antideficiency Act. During a shutdown furlough, the Department of the Navy (DON) would have to shut down any activities funded by annual appropriations that are not excepted by law. Actual lapses resulting in a shutdown have ranged from several hours to multiple days occurred in the 1980s, 1990s, 2010s and most recently in 2013.

(Note: An emergency furlough as a result of a lapse in appropriations differs from the administrative furlough incurred by Department of Defense (DOD) employees in 2013.)

Key Points

- If the DoD does not have an appropriations extension by midnight on 19 January, the DON will be required to limit operations to those identified as excepted.
- When the DON limits operations, appropriated fund employees not excepted from furlough must be placed in a non-duty, non-pay status.
- Non-excepted (furloughed) employees are not allowed to work, even on a volunteer basis.
- Employees excepted from furlough (directed to work) include those performing excepted functions:
  - Safety of human life or protection of property (national security and SAPR)
  - Medical/dental care
  - Acquisition and logistic support (includes contracting)
  - Education and training
  - Legal activities
  - Audit and investigation community
  - Morale welfare and recreation/non-appropriated funds
  - Financial management
  - Working capital fund/revolving funds
  - Activities funded with unobligated, unexpired balances
- Military personnel are not furloughed and may be assigned to perform excepted or non-excepted functions of the DON.

(Note: Only the minimum number of civilian employees necessary to carry out excepted activities will be excepted from the furlough. Employees that provide direct support to excepted positions may also be excepted, if they are critical to performing the excepted activity.)
Important to Note

- Only excepted (directed to work) employees shall be permitted to work; those non-excepted (furloughed) employees may not volunteer to work during a lapse in funding.

- Upon furlough, all scheduled leave (e.g., annual leave, sick leave) is canceled for all excepted and non-excepted employees. Absences during the furlough may not be charged to leave; excepted employees (directed to work) unable to report to duty, due to illness, jury duty, etc., must be placed in a furlough status (i.e. non-duty, non-pay).

- Excepted employees (directed to work) who are not able to report to duty, due to sick leave, jury duty, etc., must be placed in a furlough status (i.e., non-pay, non-duty) until they are able to return to duty.

- Excepted employees will not be compensated until Congress passes an appropriations bill or continuing resolution.

- Excepted employees on TDY performing excepted functions will remain at their TDY location.

- Non-excepted employees on TDY shall return to their home station.

- Heads of activities may require the return to work of furloughed civilian employees in the event of developments that pose an imminent danger to life or property.

- Excepted employees may earn compensatory time off and/or credit hours consistent with appropriate requirements and Command guidelines. Employees will not be permitted to use earned compensatory time off or credit hours during the shutdown period.

- Navy Working Capital Fund (NWCF) activities have been determined to be a categorical exception to shutdown furlough due to available funding. Based on this guidance, Echelon III Commanders or his/her designee may authorize leave based upon mission requirements with careful consideration given to conservation of cash reserves. Prudent business decisions and management actions should be taken to sustain operations and minimize operational impact.
