11 MAR 2008

From: Director, Department of the Navy Central Adjudication Facility
To: AEAA Aaron Alexis, USN, (b) (6)
Via: Commanding Officer, (Attn: Security Manager), Fleet Logistics Support Squadron 46, 1000 Halsey Avenue, BLDG 300, Naval Air Station Atlanta, Marietta, GA 30060-5099 (UIC: 08980)

Subj: SECURITY ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION

Ref: (a) SECNAV M-5510.30
(b) CNO ltr 5529 Ser 09N2/6U871220 of 12 Sep 06
(c) OPM NACLIC of 24 Aug 07 (NOTAL)

1. We render security clearance eligibility determinations on Department of the Navy personnel in accordance with references (a) and (b). You have been determined eligible for a Secret security clearance effective the date of this letter.

2. Although reference (c) was favorably adjudicated, it contained information regarding financial considerations and personal conduct. Specifically, your credit report revealed several accounts as past due, collections, or bad debt accounts. Additionally, you failed to reflect these delinquent debts on your personnel security questionnaire.

3. You are cautioned that financial irresponsibility is considered very serious, and in order for you to remain eligible for access to classified information, you must immediately visit your command financial counselor for assistance in making arrangements to resolve your delinquent debts. Failure to address your delinquent debts will be cause for reconsideration of your eligibility for a security clearance. VAR 8 You are responsible for ensuring any future personnel security questionnaires are complete and accurate prior to their submission.

4. For Commanding Officer, Fleet Logistics Support Squadron 46: The investigative basis for this determination is reference (c). It is the responsibility of the command to ensure the individual receives financial counseling and oversight, to ensure the delinquent debts are addressed. Failure to comply must be reported to us per reference (a).
