

---

Christopher J. Biglin

Counsel Naval Air Systems Command

Mr. Christopher J. Biglin is the Counsel for the Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR). NAVAIR employs over 25,000 personnel spanning eight geographic locations tasked with the mission of providing acquisition life cycle support for Naval Aviation systems and material. As Counsel, he delivers legal advice to the senior leadership of the Command and its affiliated program executive offices. He also leads the NAVAIR Office of Counsel, which includes over 115 attorneys and staff across the NAVAIR sites. Collectively, he and his team support an organization responsible for approximately $40 billion in acquisition and sustainment funds annually. Mr. Biglin entered the Senior Executive Service in May 2010, when he was appointed Deputy Counsel for NAVAIR. He served in that capacity through January 2019.

Mr. Biglin began his career with the Department of the Navy Office of General Counsel in 1994. Mr. Biglin was assigned to the Naval Undersea Warfare Center Detachment, New London, Connecticut, within the Naval Sea Systems Command. In 1996, Mr. Biglin transferred to the Naval Undersea Warfare Center, Division, Newport, Rhode Island. In these positions, Mr. Biglin provided legal advice in support of acquisition, civilian personnel, and standards of conduct matters. In 1998, Mr. Biglin transferred to Engineering Field Activity, Mediterranean, Naples, Italy, within the Naval Facilities Engineering Command. He provided legal advice to the Department of Defense Executive Agent for military construction and environmental matters in Italy, Spain and Greece. In February 2001, Mr. Biglin transferred to NAVAIR. From 2001 through 2010, Mr. Biglin served as a program attorney supporting various major weapons systems programs.

Mr. Biglin received a bachelor's of arts degree in cognitive science from Lehigh University in 1990, and a juris doctor degree from the University of Connecticut School of Law in 1994. Mr. Biglin's individual and team awards include the Navy's Meritorious Civilian Service Award, as well as the Department of Defense's David Packard Excellence in Acquisition Award. He is a member of the Connecticut State Bar.