
Ms. Linda Mobley

Director, Procurement Group Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR)

In January 2019, Ms. Linda Mobley became the Director of the Procurement Group at the Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR) where she has responsibility for a 1,050-person organization performing business and contracting functions at NAVAIR Headquarters in Patuxent River, Maryland and 5 major sites nationwide. As the Director of the Procurement Group, she oversees the annual award and administration of $46B in contracts for the design, development, and procurement of all naval aviation systems in the Navy and Marine Corps inventory, as well as the procurement of program management, engineering, logistics, training, and research and development services in support of naval aviation programs.

Ms. Mobley was selected for promotion into the Senior Executive Service in April 2013 and served as the Director of Contracts for Unmanned Aviation and Strike Weapons (PEO(U&W)) and NAVAIR Programs where she led a workforce of 95 civilian and military contracting personnel responsible for approximately 1,100 contracting actions valued at $4.2B.

Ms. Mobley served as the Civilian Deputy for Contracts at NAVAIR. In this role, she assisted NAVAIR's Assistant Commander for Contracts in the day-to-day operations of the Contracts Competency, which was responsible for approximately 830 personnel nationwide and $29B annually in contracting actions. She worked on a myriad of Command initiatives while supporting the AIR 2.0 Executive.

Ms. Mobley joined NAVAIR in August 1995 as an acquisition intern for the Slam ER/Harpoon missile program and performed various roles of increasing responsibility. Prior to receiving her contracting officer warrant in February 2002, she rotated throughout the Departments within the competency including the Naval Air Warfare Center – Aircraft Division supporting the F/A-18 program services team.

Ms. Mobley was a Procuring Contracting Officer for various helicopter and special mission aviation platforms to include the H-1 and V-22 platforms, Division Head of the H-60 R/S Helicopters and Policy and Processes Department Head prior to moving to the AIR 2.0B, Contracting Deputy Position.

Prior to joining NAVAIR, Ms. Mobley worked for a trade association in Washington DC. She graduated magna cum laude from George Mason University with a bachelor's degree in mathematics. She also holds a master's degree in management with a concentration in contracts.

Ms. Mobley's awards include the Meritorious Civilian Service medal. She is a member of the DoD Acquisition Professional Community (APC) and is Level III certified in the Contracting Career Field.
