
Jacqueline (Jacklyn) Napier

Deputy Director, Financial Operations Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller)

Ms. Jacklyn Napier is the Deputy Director of Financial Operations and is responsible for enterprise-wide financial management and internal controls across the Budget Submitting Offices and throughout the Department of the Navy. Prior to her assignment as Deputy Director in April 2017, Ms. Napier served as the U.S. Coast Guard Deputy Director, Financial Operations/Comptroller. She provided leadership to four directorates and was responsible for oversight of Financial Reporting, Policy, Property, Audit Liaison, Audit Remediation, Internal Controls, and Financial Systems Business Requirements including technical authority for three Coast Guard finance centers. As Deputy Director, Ms. Napier had responsibility for Coast Guard enterprise-wide financial management transformation across multiple directorates supporting the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) achieving its first unmodified, “clean” financial statement audit opinion in Fiscal Year 2013. Subsequently, Ms. Napier’s tenure at the U.S. Coast Guard included DHS receiving three consecutive clean audit opinions.

At Coast Guard, Ms. Napier also served as Chief of the Office of Financial Reporting, Analysis and Audit Division. Prior to joining the Coast Guard, she served at the U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and was responsible for financial management of FHWA’s $40B trust fund and funds from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

Ms. Napier has held audit positions with the U.S. Department of Education and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Office of Inspector General. Prior to her Federal civilian career, Ms. Napier served on active duty in the U.S. Air Force. Throughout most of her civilian career, she was assigned to the District of Columbia Air National Guard. Her leadership positions with the D.C. National Guard included Operations Officer, Commander, and most recently as Inspector General prior to retirement in 2014.

Ms. Napier is a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Global Management Accountant. She earned a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Colorado and an Executive Master’s in Public Administration (with honors) from American University. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, American Society of Military Comptrollers, and Association of Government Accountants. She is a recipient of numerous military and civilian awards, including the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal and the DHS Chief Financial Officer’s Award for Excellence.
