
Christine L. Rodriguez, PMP

Deputy Director, Financial Management Systems, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller)

Christine Rodriguez currently serves as the Deputy Director, Financial Management Systems (FMS). Ms. Rodriguez assumed these duties in February 2020 and is responsible for integrating resources and developing strategy to enable the transformation and portfolio management of financial management systems for the Department of the Navy.

Prior to this assignment Ms. Rodriguez was Director, Financial Systems for the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), where she was Program Manager and led the effort for the Financial Systems Modernization (FSM) program within the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO). In this capacity Ms. Rodriguez managed an annual budget of $116M and led a team of 56 staff and associated contract support teams in the management and execution of seven major IT programs. The team identified, implemented, and oversaw modern and compliant financial management systems and business processes across the Department and its Components. They ensured the successful execution of these programs including scheduled maintenance, risk management, change management and all other program activities.

All totaled, Ms. Rodriguez has spent 12 years in service at DHS. Prior to her executive service she was a member of the DHS Transformation and Systems Consolidation (TASC) Program Management Office (PMO) where she established and led the Organization Change Management (OCM) team. Before that she was a subject matter expert resolving IT issues in the DHS Grant Policy Office. During her time at DHS Ms. Rodriguez's efforts had impact on financial systems across organizations including the Department of Interior, Transportation Security Administration, Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, US Secret Service, Countering Weapons of Mass Destruction Office and the US Coast Guard.

Prior to her career with DHS, Ms. Rodriguez led and managed the IT management reporting systems for the Office of the Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) by providing business intelligence reporting and program management services. Her private industry expertise is on IT projects and program management services supporting the Department of Justice and other federal and state agencies.

Ms. Rodriguez has more than 26 years of experience in acquiring, designing, implementing and operating financial management, cutting edge business intelligence solutions. She has championed the human side of systems implementation by putting special emphasis on OCM. As a result of her success she has received three awards from DHS for her efforts including the DHS Secretary's Award for Excellence.
