
Allison F. Stiller

Principal Civilian Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy Research, Development and Acquisition

Ms. Allison F. Stiller's responsibilities include oversight and policy for Navy and Marine Corps research, development, and acquisition programs for shipbuilding, aviation, space, weapon systems, and communication systems. This portfolio includes oversight of more than 100,000 people and an annual budget in excess of $50 billion as well as hundreds of technical development, procurement, and sustainment programs for the Department of the Navy. Ms. Stiller also leads the Department's Acquisition Corps.

Ms. Stiller entered the Senior Executive Service in January 2004. She has spent nearly 30 years in the Department of Defense's acquisition community. Prior to her current position, Ms. Stiller served as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Ship Programs. In this capacity, she was responsible for executive oversight of all naval shipbuilding and associated weapon systems programs, major ship conversions, and nuclear ship refuelings, as well as the maintenance, modernization and disposal of in-service ships.

Ms. Stiller has served in a number of shipbuilding acquisition positions throughout her career where she led in the development and procurement of complex ship programs in multiple phases of the acquisition life cycle. She served as Deputy Program Manager for the design, development, acquisition, and fleet introduction of amphibious ships and landing craft. She also served on the Navy staff where her responsibilities included oversight of amphibious and auxiliary ship construction and conversion programs, as well as overall shipbuilding industrial base matters. Early in her career, Ms. Stiller also served on the Virginia Class and SEAWOLF Class attack submarine programs in the design and early construction phases of both programs.

Ms. Stiller holds a BS in Systems Engineering from the University of Virginia and a MS in Engineering Management from Virginia Tech. She is also a graduate of the JFK School of Government's Senior Executive Fellows Program at Harvard University and the Defense Systems Management College.

Throughout her career, Ms. Stiller's leadership and performance has been recognized by numerous awards including the Presidential Rank Award (Distinguished and Meritorious) and the Department of the Navy's Superior and Meritorious Civilian Service awards.

Ms. Stiller is also the proud ship sponsor for USS MISSISSIPPI (SSN 782).
