OPNAV INSTRUCTION 3501.382A

From: Chief of Naval Operations

Subj: REQUIRED OPERATIONAL CAPABILITIES AND PROJECTED OPERATIONAL ENVIRONMENT FOR NAVY EXPEDITIONARY INTELLIGENCE COMMAND FORCES

Ref: (a) Navy Expeditionary Combat Command Intelligence Concept of Operations (NOTAL)
(b) Navy Expeditionary Intelligence Command Concept of Operations (NOTAL)
(c) OPNAVINST C3501.2L (NOTAL)

Encl: (1) Operational Mission Areas for Navy Expeditionary Intelligence Command (NAVEXINTCOM) Forces
(2) Projected Operational Environment (POE) for Navy Expeditionary Intelligence Command (NAVEXINTCOM) Forces
(3) Required Operational Capabilities (ROC) for Navy Expeditionary Intelligence Command (NAVEXINTCOM) Forces

1. Purpose

a. To issue the projected operational environment (POE) and the required operational capabilities (ROC) for the elements of the Navy Expeditionary Intelligence Command (NAVEXINTCOM) forces.

b. This instruction has been revised to update NAVEXINTCOM required readiness levels across all mission areas. This instruction provides descriptions of NAVEXINTCOM forces, mission requirements, capabilities, and the mission environments described in references (a) and (b).

c. This instruction is a complete revision and should be reviewed in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. OPNAVINST 3501.382.

3. Background. NAVEXINTCOM was established in order to build and manage an expeditionary intelligence force capable of conducting intelligence operations in support of Navy and joint forces worldwide. NAVEXINTCOM provides a multi-intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance (ISR) capability that collects, analyzes, and disseminates human intelligence (HUMINT) through military source operations, sensitive site exploitation and tactical electronic warfare (EW), via technical means, in support of maritime domain awareness, indications and warnings (I&W), force protection (FP), and intelligence preparation of the operational environment in the maritime and expeditionary environments. NAVEXINTCOM complements and expands current Navy and Department of Defense (DoD) intelligence capabilities.

4. Scope and Applicability. This instruction provides resource agencies information describing NAVEXINTCOM mission requirements, capabilities, and the types and locations of operational employment. Together, the ROC and POE establishes tasking which produces a measurable workload to compute personnel requirements for activity manpower documents.

5. Discussion. Enclosures (1) through (3), prepared per reference (c), provide details of the mission areas and operational capabilities. This instruction provides resource sponsors with the information to ensure proper resourcing of the force.

6. Action. Fleet commanders should periodically review enclosures (1) through (3) and recommend changes to the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations (OPNAV) (Attention: Navy Expeditionary Combat Branch (N957)) when mission or capabilities of NAVEXINTCOM forces are altered. Change recommendations should include comments on the expected fleet manpower document impact.

7. Records Management

a. Records created as a result of this instruction, regardless of format or media, must be maintained and dispositioned for the standard subject identification codes 1000 through 13000 series per the records disposition schedules located on the Department of the Navy/Assistant for Administration (DON/AA), Directives and Records Management Division (DRMD) portal page at <https://portal.secnav.navy.mil/orgs/DUSNM/DONAA/DRM/Records-and-Information-Management/Approved%20Record%20Schedules/Forms/AllItems.aspx>.

b. For questions concerning the management of records related to this instruction or the records disposition schedules, please contact the local records manager or the DON/AA DRMD program office.

8. Review and Effective Date. Per OPNAVINST 5215.17A, Director, Expeditionary Warfare Division (OPNAV N95) will review this instruction annually on the anniversary of its issuance date to ensure applicability, currency, and consistency with Federal, DoD, SECNAV, and Navy policy and statutory authority using OPNAV 5215/40 Review of Instruction. This instruction will be in effect for 5 years, unless revised or cancelled in the interim, and will be reissued by the 5-year anniversary date if it is still required, unless it meets one of the exceptions in

OPNAVINST 3501.382A
19 Oct 2018

OPNAVINST 5215.17A, paragraph 9. Otherwise, if the instruction is no longer required, it will be processed for cancellation as soon as the cancellation is known following the guidance in OPNAV Manual 5215.1 of May 2016.

OPERATIONAL MISSION AREAS FOR NAVY EXPEDITIONARY INTELLIGENCE
COMMAND (NAVEXINTCOM) FORCES

1. NAVEXINTCOM provides an ISR capability through centralized planning, coordination, and integration of expeditionary intelligence capabilities to assess, plan, and execute intelligence operations in the expeditionary and maritime domain. NAVEXINTCOM is responsible for administrative support, movement planning, organizational oversight and training, and DoD intelligence capability certification for all assigned intelligence exploitation teams (IET). NAVEXINTCOM serves as an advocate for intelligence manning, training, and equipment requirements for the force.
2. Primary (P) missions are those missions that a unit is to perform during wartime. Secondary (S) missions are those missions that a unit could be expected to perform, but are not essential to carrying out its war-time role.

AMW	CCC	EW	EXW	FHP	FSO	INT	IO	LOG	MOB	MOS	NCO	SUW
AMW = amphibious warfare CCC = command, control, & communication EW = electronic warfare EXW = expeditionary operations FHP = force health protection FSO = fleet support operations INT = intelligence operations							IO = information operations LOG = logistics MIW = mine warfare MOB = mobility MOS = missions of state NCO = non-combat operations SUW = surface warfare

(U) Table 1-1: Primary (P) and Secondary (S) Warfare Mission Areas

3. NAVEXINTCOM staff is responsible for training and certifying each team ready for deployment. The headquarters staff has oversight of operations, intelligence, administration, legal, logistical support, and maintenance of NAVEXINTCOM forces. Normally, the NAVEXINTCOM staff will not deploy, but assist in coordinating logistics and support, and exercise administrative control of the deployed forces. When deployed, an IET supports and reports to the operational commander.
4. NAVEXINTCOM is located at Naval Air Station Oceana, Dam Neck Annex, Virginia Beach, VA.
5. Two Navy Reserve commands are subordinated under NAVEXINTCOM: Navy Reserve 0106 (Virginia Beach, VA) and Navy Reserve 0222 (Ft. Lewis, WA). These unit commanders are charged with maintaining the capability to conduct continental United States-based strategic debriefing; scripting and executing fleet response training plan exercise and assessment events; and augmenting active duty IETs as both the units are unable to deploy as IET units of action.

6. Readiness Conditions. ROCs are reported under readiness conditions having major significance in determining the unit's total manpower requirements.

a. Readiness State I: Full Contingency Readiness

(1) Significant strategic and tactical indications of imminent hostilities. While in readiness state I, the staff will be capable of meeting the following criteria: able to perform and direct all offensive and defensive functions of one major command configuration (i.e., commander, joint task force, or commander, Navy expeditionary force) with limited capability to support secondary functions' responsibilities simultaneously. This state supports war and operation plans executed at defense readiness condition (DEFCON) I and II, and major civil assistance operations. All watch stations and vital positions will be manned to sustain operations in the designated command configuration indefinitely once implementation is complete. Attainment of this state includes providing plan-specified augmentation assets to various remote command centers, posts, and units. The staff and supporting commands will take all measures necessary to ensure all primary and battle-redundant systems are maintained in a maximum state of readiness.

(2) All personnel assets detailed in national, theater, and unit mobilization plans must be staffed by permanent personnel, marked reserves and augmentees.

b. Readiness State III: Current Operations

(1) Conducting current operations without mobilized augmentation assets. Watch stations and vital positions sufficient to sustain theater and local operations at the DEFCON IV or III or minor civil assistance operations are manned and ready. The staff is able to initialize major war or operation plans in advance of augmentation support. This readiness state is the sum total of those watch stations and vital positions required to support routine operation in DEFCON IV (geopolitical instability exists in the area of responsibility which requires constant vigilance and monitoring for rapidly escalating, emergent developments) and the additional watch stations and vital positions required to immediately surge to a level to support DEFCON III (tensions exist which may have serious and adverse effects, and the possibility of force involvement exists).

(2) All personnel assets to support this readiness state must be permanent staff assets. The staff and supporting command will provide routine organizational level maintenance.

7. Capabilities Levels. ROC symbols are used to specify the desired level of achievement of readiness or other work for or during a particular readiness condition. Readiness normally applies to watches and evolutions, while other work refers to non-watch activity such as performing maintenance.

a. "F" = "Full." The capability is to be fully achieved. For operational functions (watches), this means that installed equipment or systems will be fully manned to design capability. For support functions, sufficient manning is provided to ensure effective accomplishment of all included tasks. The achievement is to be sustained for the duration of the condition unless modified by an "A" or "E."

b. "L" = "Limited." The capability is to be only partially realized (Note: "P" for "Partial" is no longer a symbol). Even though only limited capability is realized, it is to be sustained for the duration of the condition unless modified by an "A" or "E." Every "L" must be supported by a limiting statement specifying the limitation.

c. "A" = "Augmentation." The capability is to be either fully or partially achieved for a limited time during the condition. The capability is achieved by using off-watch or off-duty personnel to achieve the required degree of capability. This symbol is always associated with an "F" or "L" and establishes a requirement for personnel to be trained, available, and on call to augment existing watch stations as required.

d. "E" = "Special Team." The capability is to be either fully or partially achieved for a limited time during the condition. The capability is achieved by using off-watch special teams or details. This symbol is always associated with an "F" or "L" and denotes a capability that does not require continuous watch manning. Teams and details as set may either supplement or replace all or part of the existing watch organization.

MODIFIER		CAPABILITY
		FULL	LIMITED
NONE	=>	Manned to design capacity for duration of condition	Manned to less than design capacity for duration of condition
A	=>	Temporarily manned to design capacity using off-watch personnel	Temporarily manned to less than design capacity using off-watch personnel
E	=>	Temporarily manned to design capacity using a special team	Temporarily manned to less than design capacity using a special team

8. Unit's Company and External Personnel Resources. Normally, using an "A" or an "E" requires no embellishing statement as their meanings are predefined. However, for units that routinely embark external resources, the meaning may not be clear as to whether unit's personnel or an external resource should provide the augmentation. This ROC and POE instruction shows:

- a. if the resource is unit's company, no elaboration or statement is provided;
- b. if the resource is external for "F," a note is added to the ROC stating the resource; and
- c. if the resource is external for "L," the resource is added to the capability limiting statement.

PROJECTED OPERATIONAL ENVIRONMENT (POE) FOR NAVY EXPEDITIONARY
INTELLIGENCE COMMAND (NAVEXINTCOM) FORCES

1. IETs are active-duty, globally deployable, units of action, task organized to conduct maritime domain awareness, I&W, FP, sensitive site exploitation, and intelligence preparation of the operational environment in direct support of Navy component and joint forces. IET capabilities are core Navy, directly supporting the maritime strategy, and are key components of achieving decision superiority. IETs provide a flexible multi-ISR capability across the maritime environment that is unique in the regular forces, and bridges the seam between sea and land while supporting all warfare campaign phases (zero to five). IETs must be capable of performing all offensive and defensive functions simultaneously while deployed.
2. IETs are composed of an officer in charge (OIC), HUMINT collectors, tactical EW technicians, and intelligence analysts. IETs coordinate closely with the NAVEXINTCOM leadership to refine manning, training, and equipment requirements, and assist the NAVEXINTCOM staff in establishing required policy and tactics, techniques, and procedures based on operational requirements.
3. The most demanding operational conditions for the IET occur as team members deploy throughout a theater of operation during major combat operations. While the OIC and analysts are located at operational and tactical command and control locations and key information nodes, IET HUMINT collectors and tactical EW technicians are precisely positioned in both the maritime and expeditionary environments to actively collect in response to the supported commander's intelligence requirements. IET's operational concept acts as a flexible and adaptable network that provides the commander with a high fidelity short and long-term collection capability.
4. While deployed, IET collectors and technicians forward stage and operate from military and civilian platforms and facilities, to include, but not limited to, aircraft carriers, surface ships, forward operating bases, hotels, etc. Missions are conducted across the full spectrum of operations and routinely place team members in close proximity to person(s) of interest. Accordingly, IET members are required to complete maritime and expeditionary mobility training. IETs provide fleet maritime interception operations (MIO) boarding teams with requisite expertise to recognize and exploit intelligence opportunities. Team members are certified to conduct compliant and non-compliant visit, board, search, and seizure (VBSS) missions. During VBSS missions designated as opposed, IET members will embark during the second wave to conduct intelligence collection and exploitation activities.
5. IETs collect, analyze, and disseminate HUMINT through military source operations, and signals intelligence (SIGINT) via technical means, in the maritime and expeditionary environments. Specific collection and exploitation skills include counterintelligence (CI), civil maritime expertise, theater familiarity, interviews, debriefing, elicitation, tactical questioning, interrogation, monitoring techniques, tactical EW, and targeting. IET operations include, but are not limited to, biometrics, sensitive site exploitation, tagging, tactical communications, communication profiling, network mapping and survey, and computer network operations. Specific subject matter experts may augment the team to meet specialized collection requirements when directed by higher authority.

6. In theater IET, activity is routinely exercised under the operational authorities of the assigned Navy component command. Consistent with Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and SECNAV HUMINT guidance, IETs will report to, and integrate with, the appropriate defense HUMINT executor upon arrival in an assigned theater. At the direction of the defense HUMINT executor, IET members disperse to critical areas, acting as a collection network, in support of assigned operational or unit commander requirements.

7. The OIC and select personnel assigned to IETs will be DoD certified in, and credentialed for, interrogation, CI, and military source operations. They will be culturally astute and serve as a primary means for interaction with local populations in support of the commander's requirements. IETs do not have an organic language capability. Hence, linguists or interpreters from other Navy units, services, or civilian agencies may be required to augment an IET.

8. ROC symbols are used to specify the desired level of achievement of readiness or other work for or during a particular readiness condition. Readiness normally applies to operations and evolutions, while other work refers to non-watch activity such as performing maintenance or training.
