Encl: (1) Responsibilities

1. Purpose. To establish Department of the Navy (DON) policy for merit staffing; underscore the DON commitment to adherence to merit system principles, veterans’ preference, hiring reform requirements and equality of opportunity principles; and assign responsibilities regarding Human Resources (HR) staffing, placement, and employment program policies consistent with references (a) through (p).

2. Cancellation. SECNAVINST 12300.9

3. Applicability
a. This instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of the Navy (SECNAV); the Chief of Naval Operations (CNO); the Commandant of the Marine Corps (CMC); all U.S. Navy, U.S. Marine Corps installations, commands, activities, field offices; and all other organizational entities within the DON. This includes all appropriated fund employees covered by the General Schedule (GS), Administratively Determined, Federal Wage System, Wage Mariner, and personnel demonstration projects (unless specifically excluded).

b. This instruction does not apply to the Senior Executive Service, to positions above the GS-15 level, or to non-appropriated fund positions.

4. Policy. It is DON policy that:

   a. All available and appropriate hiring flexibilities and authorities should be utilized, as necessary, to employ and/or retain a highly-skilled, diverse workforce committed to excellence in executing the various missions within the DON.

   b. All positions covered by this instruction shall be filled solely on the basis of merit and job related criteria without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, status as a parent, political, religious, or labor organization affiliation or non-affiliation, or other prohibited non-merit factors.

   c. Management officials and HR professionals may not recommend or select candidates or give and/or show preference to any candidate based on non-merit factors such as personal friendship, kinship, or political connections. Management officials may not advocate for, appoint, employ, promote, or advance relatives (by blood or marriage) to a position over which he or she exercises jurisdiction or control. Management officials and HR professionals are prohibited from participating in the rating, ranking, evaluating, and selection process if a relative is being considered. In the event of an emergency, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) may prescribe regulations authorizing temporary employment to individuals whose employment would otherwise be prohibited.
d. Consideration for actionable solutions to increase the DON’s capability to hire civilian talent should be utilized to the fullest extent. These actionable solutions include the use of Management Identification of Candidates, USA Hire Assessment Tool, Non-Competitive and Special Appointing Authorities, Standing Registers for Multiple Locations, and Multiple Selections from One Certificate (Bundling).

5. Records Management. Records created as a result of this instruction, regardless of media and format, shall be managed per SECNAV Manual 5210.1 of January 2012.

6. Reports. The reporting requirements contained in enclosure (1) of this instruction are exempt from information collection by SECNAVINST 5214.1, Part IV and require no report control symbol.
